It Pays to Buy Furniture at This Store

The character of the furnishings we sell, the large assortments and broad varieties carried and our immense business enabling us to buy in large quantities and so quote much lower prices—is your assurance of perfect satisfaction in buying here. Then in addition to this we are in a position to grant you time in paying for merchandise bought here. And the prices you are asked to pay for this convenience are no higher, if as high, than those you'll pay cash for elsewhere. At least, pay us a visit. Come and visit every department. You'll find us only too pleased to show you our offerings, whether you come to buy or to "look about." We won't make you feel uncomfortable if it's the latter case. So don't let anything prevent you from coming.

20 Per Cent DISCOUNT SALE

On Our Entire Stock of Merchandise

(5 and 10 Cent Counters Excepted)

For 15 Days, Aug. 6 to Aug. 23, Inclusive

On Cash Sales of $1.00 or Over.

It is needless to take space to enumerate our different lines, as our stock is so well known. Suffice to say it is as clean and up-to-date stock of Crockery, fine China, Cut Glass, Common Glassware, Enamelled Ware and House Furnishing Goods as can be found in the State.

This sacrifice is made to reduce stock, as we must have the room for our new stock of imported goods that begin to arrive in September.

Remember 80c buys $1.00 worth at this sale, $10.00 worth costs you only $8.00, $20.00 worth only $16.00. This is certainly worth taking advantage of.

No Rebate Checks Given on Discount Sales
Positively no credit given. All sales strictly cash.

No returns or exchanges will be allowed on sale purchases.

Princess Nicotine, or "the smoke fairy," the feature picture at the Comique, the clever novelty of this trick picture makes it exceedingly pleasing and welcome. Princess Nicotine is a charming young girl who steps from a tobacco box, followed by a small fairy. The latter climbs into a pipe and does many interesting and amusing acts. "Satan's Smith." The colored trick spectacular effects in this picture are novel and pleasing to the eye and of particular interest. A blacksmith is captured by Satan and taken to the infernal regions, where he is released by a fairy. The expense to produce this picture was undoubtedly very great.

Mrs. Norman Blair went to Burlington to-day for a visit with relatives.

"Tony's" is the place to buy ice cream. Many Barre people think so from past trials.

There will be a band concert in the park this evening if the weather is favorable.

The N. E. O. P. drill team will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 in Odd Fellows hall.

A daughter was born yesterday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Baker of 35 Beckley street.

Mrs. W. H. Wales and her grandfather, S. J. Gupitt, went to Franklin to-day for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haviland and daughter, Ida, left to-day for a two weeks' vacation at Joe's pond in Danville.

Fresh supply of Russell's unexcelled chocolates in bulk and packages received to-day at the New England Fruit Store. Try a pound, see how good they are.

A peculiar coincidence today was the fact that Montpelier went stormy this forenoon as far as rain was concerned, while Barre got one of the worst soakings of the year.

There will be a match game of golf played on the course Saturday afternoon. Captains Matthews and Dalgarno will choose sides. It is desired that all players be on hand by 1:30. All members playing on course will be chosen.

In the burglar loot which was secured from the safe of the Consolidated Quarry company in the Scampini building Wednesday night, there was one check for $21, which will be valueless to the burglar or burglars, as payment on the check was immediately stopped. That reduces the actual steal to a little less than $200.

Cottage prayer meeting to-night at Father Blaisdell's on Washington street. All are invited. Children's exercises next Sunday afternoon. Tent meetings next week at Grandville. The harvest festival dates this year are Sept. 18 to 21. Staff Captain Joseph Garabed, better known as "Joe the Turk," will be in Barre between Sept. 18 and 21. This man is a converted Turk from Constantinople and is a very interesting character.

"A Georgia Wedding" at Dreamland to-day is the picture story of a typical Southern wedding of slavery days, enacted by genuine darbies with their cake walking, dancing and other amusing pastimes on such occasions. There is many a good hearty laugh in it.

"The Artist's Revenge" pictures the clever manner in which a struggling artist gets square with an art dealer who has "fished" him in a deal. When the dealer wants his portrait painted, the artist demands payment in advance, subjects him to numerous abuses, then shows his conception of the customer in a life-size picture of a dunkey. Another picture and the song make a very good entertainment.

FATAL WOUNDS ON HEAD.

William F. Derrivan Dead at Peabody, Mass., Was Assaulted.

Peabody, Mass., Aug. 20.—William F. Derrivan, aged 35, of 68 Fulton street, died in the Thomas free hospital at 7:54 last night from the effects of injuries on his head alleged to have been inflicted by Edward C. Whalley, aged 30, of 1 Watson street, Salem. Derrivan leaves a wife and children.

Derrivan and Whalley were employed side by side at a fishing machine in the basement of the National Cattle skin company plants in this town. The alleged assault was committed at 10 a. m. yesterday. No one appears to have any knowledge of its cause.

Without any verbal altercation, so far as any one now appears to know, Whalley is alleged to have picked up a heavy stick from the floor and approached Derrivan. The police say that Whalley muttered "You have dogged me long enough," and then struck Derrivan a terrific blow on his head.

Chelonia county court had an outing at Joe's pond Saturday with a clam bake, tug of war, ball game and all the other appropriate things, legal and otherwise. The bench, jury, bar and other officials were all represented.

Meat Man

City Fish Market

says:

Last week a whole lot of you folks believed what I said about the good things in the Meat Department for Saturday, and bought generously. The first unsatisfactory word is yet to be heard.

BOY SHOT IN "LARK."

His Girl Companion Said to Have Pulled Trigger.

Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 20.—George Savage, 15 years old, was fatally shot in an ice cream parlor in Whitney Point yesterday afternoon by Blanche Stratton, a 15-year-old girl, who claims that the shooting was accidental. During a lark the girl took a revolver and pointed it at Savage, two or three times and finally pulled the trigger, and the boy fell to the floor with a bullet wound through the lungs, from the effects of which he died a few minutes later.

The examination of Coroner Guy shows that the revolver hammer had been snapped on one of the unexploded cartridges in it as though an attempt had been made to fire it before, or as though it had been snapped at just twice. The girl disclaims any knowledge of snapping the revolver at all and says she did not suppose it was loaded.
